

Beltway Park

The Trials of the Believer Keith Roberson November 29, 2009

Thanksgiving is a time where we slow down to be thankful for many things going right in our lives, but in doing so we often have to face the fact that we have areas of _____ and pain we are walking through.

The first truth we must embrace is that we are _____ in this life.
(1 Pet. 2:9-10)

What does the Bible _____ us in trials and suffering?
(1 Pet. 4:12-19)

Discover the _____ of God.

Suffering is not strange, but a plan. Often it is part of God's _____ for us as His people.

BUT WHY would this be God's _____?

- It is for our _____. (v. 12 – ESV)
- It is for _____. (v. 17)

The Judgment of God is on this earth against all things that _____ our affections for Him. (Rev. 19:7)

Keep on _____! (v. 13)

We feel the evidence of being _____ with Jesus.
(Col. 1:24, John 15:13, 2 Cor. 12:7-9)

God's glory is _____.

_____ is produced. (James 1:2-4)

Ask for _____. (James 1:5)

Cast off _____. (1 Pet. 4:15-16)
